A Few of My Favorite Producers

B. Kosuge

Byron Kosuge is a quiet, demure winemaker, not a rockstar, nor a publicity hound. Instead he quietly makes some of California's top wines with personality, soul and intensity allowing the lonely vine to bask in all the attention. Having spent 15 years at Sainstbury, he describes himself as "ordinary, without a fancy winery, making modest amounts of interesting wines I want to drink myself".

Peay

Situated just 4 miles from the Pacific Ocean in the northern reaches of Sonoma County, Peay produces the most consistently fantastic array of wines in the United States. Winemaker Vanessa Wong, formerly of Peter Michael Winery, along with Nick and Andy Peay are responsible for these extremely limited, amazing wines.

Founded in 1862 by Jacob Schram and resurrected in 1965 by Jack and Jamie Davies. Schramsberg created the first Blanc de Noirs and Brut Rose in the United States in 1967. Jamie Davies and her son Hugh continue the nearly 150 year legacy of Napa Valley wine today.

Egly-Ouriet is one of Champagne's rising stars and one of the original "Grower" Champagnes. Francis Egly makes elegant, pristine and pinpoint laser-like, crisp, beautiful, hand made Champagne from amazing, old vine vineyards, with low dosage. The "Vignes de Vrigny" is 100% Pinot Meunier aged 3 years on lees. The "VP" refers to the prolonged aging of nearly 6 years before release, with no dosage.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape – “The New School”

Modern style, new oak, wines with jammy, ripe, raisiny extraction

The wines of Clos St. Jean are typically old vine Grenache based and are usually picked later than other producers. This modern style sees some new oak on the Syrah and is ripe, rich and raisiny.

Domaine Charvin has been called the Burgundy of Chateauneuf displaying elegance, balance and perfumed Grenache from up to 70 year old vines. However, this father and son team produce wines of power understating the elegance like an iron fist in a velvet glove.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape – “Traditionalists”

Traditional older barrel fermentation, earthy, terroir driven wines

Bosquet des Papes “Chante Le Merle” 2005 128

100 year old Grenache vines, traditional style, leathery, meaty and ripe

Beaucastel is one of the few producers that use all 13 of the authorized grape varieties in their Chateauneuf and the wines rely heavily on Mouvedre as the predominate grape in the blend.

Languedoc Roussillon

This area is one of the most exciting in France. Incredible value, bright, youthful, fresh fruit from Grenache, Syrah and Carignane, similar to young Rhone wines. This appellation just south of the Rhone valley delivers complex wines from old vines at great prices.

Since their first vintage in 1978, Shafer has made outstanding Cabernet that defines the classic Stag's Leap District style. The Hillside Select bottling is one of the Napa Valley's greatest wines, from 100% Cabernet grown on rugged hillside vineyard blocks. Rich, supple and elegant, yet with power and strength to age for many decades. We are proud to offer these vintages.
